

JCU- NEWMAN INTERSCHOOL MATHS COMPETITION 2025

James Cook University and Newman Catholic College are proud to host an interschool maths competition for talented students in Years 7, 8 and 9 from across the Cairns region.

Open to: All secondary schools in the Cairns region (Catholic, Education Queensland and Independent schools)

Numbers: Schools are to nominate nine students in total:

This year all competitions are individual competitions.

3 x students from Year 7.
3 x students from Year 8.
3 x students from Year 9.

Date: Thursday 15 May 2025

Time: Arrive at 1:15pm for a 1:30pm start.
Dismissal at 3:30pm.

To register:

Return nomination form to Mr. Luke Currie by emailing lcurrie2@cns.catholic.edu.au

This event is proudly sponsored by Cairns Catholic Education Services in partnership with the Business Liaison Association, James Cook University and Newman Catholic College.

JAMES COOK UNIVERSITY
AUSTRALIA

NEWMAN
CATHOLIC COLLEGE
SMITHFIELD

Venue: James Cook University, Nguma bada campus (Smithfield).
Rooms A003-001 and A003-002

Cost: Free (with prizes to be won)

Refreshments: Attendees to eat their own Lunch beforehand, as only light refreshments will be provided

Supervision: Teachers from each school are welcome to attend

Nominations due: Thursday 24 April

